

ScreenDiary 2.6

A better home for your movie and TV history.

Track movies and TV, find something to watch, and explore your history across iPhone, iPad and Mac.

DEVELOPER

Emmett Redding

BASED IN

Melbourne, Australia

PLATFORMS

iPhone, iPad, Mac

CATEGORY

Entertainment

OVERVIEW

ScreenDiary keeps watch history, wishlists, notes, reviews and episode progress together. Smart Search can identify a title from a quote, character or half-remembered description. Regional streaming availability and detailed statistics help people decide what to watch and understand what they have seen.

VERSION 2.6 HIGHLIGHTS

Passport

Collect stamps for countries, languages, people, genres and milestones. Open any stamp, customise its design, and share Passport pages or PDFs.

Ticket Archive

Log a cinema watch and ScreenDiary automatically makes a collectible ticket stub, linked to the exact watch and ready to share.

Full TV statistics

Explore episodes, seasons, series, cast and crew, genres, networks, studios, watch time and 100 new TV milestones.

ALSO NEW IN 2.6

Alternate Editions

Record the version watched, with 100+ included editions or your own.

Siri + Spotlight

Ask about your history, search for a title or log a watch across iPhone.

Upcoming

Wishlist movie releases and new TV episodes by week, with notifications.

Widgets

Add On This Day, Recently Watched, Wishlist, Films This Year and more.

Lists

Mix movies and TV, collaborate with others and build new Smart Lists.

Sharing

Recent Watches cards, tickets, Passport pages and connections.

SCREENDIARY AT A GLANCE

Smart Search

Quotes, characters and descriptions

Where to Watch

Streaming availability by region

Detailed statistics

Movies and TV, included for free

Personal tracking

History, wishlist, notes and reviews

AVAILABILITY AND PRICING

ScreenDiary is fully usable for free. Pro removes ads and adds optional extras.

USD 0.99/month, USD 5.99/year, or USD 24.99 as a one-time unlock. Family Sharing is included.